6. Refunds of $10.00 or less will not be issued due to the costs of processing.
7. After showing cause to the AKC Executive Secretary, RROTC and/or the Trial Committee may decline any entries for just cause and may refuse to receive or may remove any dog on account of aggression, viciousness, disease, deformity, injury or illness which may affect the dog's physical or mental performance, and no one shall have any claim or recourse against RROTC and/or the Trial Committee or any official thereof.

JUDGING

1. Judging will start promptly. During the hours of judging, owners are to be on call and have their dogs ready to bring into the ring promptly in order that the judging will not be delayed.
2. It is the responsibility of the Exhibitor to have his dog ready and at the entrance of the ring when the Steward calls for the Class. Owners or agents of the dog alone are responsible for the presence of the dogs in the rings. There is no rule that requires the Judge to wait for a late dog. No public address system shall be used to notify individual Exhibitors that they should be at ringside.
3. Judging procedures may be modified to accommodate disabled handlers.

1. RROTC and/or the Trial Committee assume no responsibility for any loss, damage to, injury or death sustained by any Exhibitor, Handler, or to any of their dogs or property, and further assume no responsibility for injury to children whether the result of accident or any other cause. In accordance with Sections I. and II. of Dealing with Misconduct at American Kennel Club Events, RROTC and/or the Trial Committee reserve the right to retain Trial Committee jurisdiction over Exhibitors whose names have been referred by hotels/motels as having left their rooms and/or grounds in a state that appears negligent or offensive.
6. In accordance with Section IV of Dealing with Misconduct at American Kennel Club Events, any Exhibitor engaging in conduct prejudicial to the sport, including, but not limited to, a demonstration of dissatisfaction with a judge's decision, including refusal to accept a ribbon or throwing a ribbon on the ground; altercations with officials or participants; abusive or foul language in public; and mistreatment of a dog will be subject to Trial Committee jurisdiction.

These materials must be removed and disposed of before leaving the show grounds. Any Exhibitor failing to do so may be excused without benefit of refund.
